THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As the Maryland Token and Medal Society begins its Forty-First year in support of the education of hobbyists on the history and activities surrounding the collection and documentation of Maryland tokens, medals and other exonomia throughout the years, I want to stress once more that YOU, the member of MD TAMS, are what Our hobby is all about. YOU make this hobby what it is. The human component is key to our past success and our continued future. I have said many times that volunteerism is the key to our continued excellence and in fact our long term survival.

I want to begin the year by thanking our officers (Bill Miller - VP, Bryce Doxzon – Secretary, and Bill Stratemeyer - Treasurer) for their support. Thanks too to our Journal Editor, Jane Sears and all those who write articles for making our Journal truly outstanding. In 2019, member Bob Ruby donated some of his Hobby artifacts to MD TAMS. Thanks Bob for this generous gesture. Some of you have already received some of Bob's donation items in your giveaway bags at the 2019 annual meeting. You are likely to see more in the future. Thanks to those members who come to club meetings and Swap Meets. Please do whatever you can in 2020 to help your hobby organization support both you and your hobby. Keep on collecting !!!

It is only fitting that we take a moment of our time to remember all those in our club and hobby who are no longer with us and on whose backs we stand as we take our hobby efforts forward to bigger and better things.

Ed Craig, President

FROM YOUR EDITOR

Hello Fellow Members

Happy New Year to all our members. I have added the MD TAMS Give-away listing in this journal. It is the smallest of the journal and it will save in sending out extra materials. The postage for the journal is getting out of control. I have cut the cost with the printing but there is no way in cutting the postage. If you have an email address you can receive a full color journal. Paper journals are in black and white. Remember that your dues are due by March 31, 2020. No journal will be sent after that date if dues are not received.

Remember you get a free ad (see instruction on application form)

I can always use articles. Either small or large. If you have a series you want to start we can do that. If you have a question that you want to put to the membership - send it in. (If you can send a photo- do that)

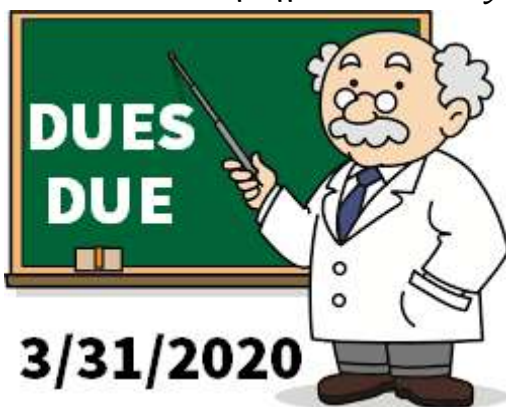

If you are new to the club and/or are not sure of some of our key dates. I will explain.

First: Our annual dues are due March 31, 2020. Which means our annual membership runs from April 1, 2020 to March 31, 2021.

Second: Our Journals sent to members for a dues year runs the same as dues (1 April 2020 to 31 March 2021).

Third: The annual Literary Awards are based on Journal articles from the past calendar year (2019). Awards are given out at the Annual meeting, usually in May or June at the Baltimore Convention Center.

Fourth: Our election of officers is every 2 years. (We just had one in 2019)

REMEMBER TO MARK YOUR CALENDAR WITH DATES OF MEETINGS & SWAPS

Notes from the Eastern Shore

Just Who Are You Anyway?

Mystery mavericks, we all have them. They can be tricky to attribute, and sometimes even the most obvious attributions can be wrong.

One of the most mystifying mavericks (at least to me, anyway) is the “W.H.C. / 4” token. It is listed in David Schenkman’s Maryland Merchant Tokens catalog as being W.H. Coulbourne, St. Michaels, MD (Talbot County 815-C5). But it is also listed in R. Lee Burton’s Canneries of the Eastern Shore as being from W.H. Cooper, Eden, MD (Somerset County S-14). One of these listings must be wrong, but is it possible they both are? Maybe.

My interest in this mystery was peaked recently when I obtained an example of this token (pictured above). It matches Schenkman’s description & Burton’s picture. So far so good. Wanting a more accurate attribution I consulted the Cannery Directories published by the National Cannery Association between the years 1909-1922, excepting the years 1910, 1919 & 1921, of which I currently have no access.

The first thing I found out consulting these lists is there are no listings for W.H. Coulbourne to be found! The years between 1910-1920 would be the most obvious years to search since the “4” denomination was primarily used by canners during those years. Earlier listings also proved fruitless. To be fair to Mr. Schenkman he states, “Attributed to an issue of W. H. Coulbourne”. He was merely acting on information given to him (I must admit it’s possible that I could have given him the attribution based on what I may have seen in another collection, or he could have been given it by someone else). So, it looks like the Cooper attribution is more likely. Except...

The problem with it being an issue of W.H. Cooper is that directory listings from 1911-1920 have the business listed as W.H.H. Cooper & Son (the lone exception is 1918 when the listing is just W.H. Cooper). Also, there is evidence that at least 4 of these tokens had turned up in the collection of a Caroline County collector who found them locally in the bottom of a jar of buttons! Unlikely that 4 Somerset tokens would show up in Caroline. Of course, this does not prove that the token doesn’t come from W.H. Cooper, but it does cast a bit of doubt.

Interestingly, there are 2 more businesses listed in the directories that fit the W.H.C. initials. From 1911-1915 there are listings for W.H. Covey of Trappe, MD. Covey’s cannery was listed at Willoughby (Queen Anne’s County) from 1911-1914, and at Landing Neck (Talbot County) in 1915. This might explain the Talbot attribution. Also, the 1918 directory lists William H. Clark in Federalsburg (later William H. Clark & Son). (It should be noted here that Burton lacked directories from 1909-1918, so some of his listings are incomplete).

Coulbourne, Cooper, Covey, Clark, a lot of choices. Who’s to say which is correct? And then there’s the “W.H.C. / 1” token that Burton identifies as being from the Windy Hill Cannery, Windy Hill, MD (Talbot County T-102). It can be very confusing!

So many mavericks, so many possibilities. I know that over the years I’ve made mistakes in attributing mavericks, and this just highlights the need to be sure before making a creditable identification. I’d love to tell you definitively what the correct answer is, but can’t. Whether the token belongs in your Somerset, Talbot, Caroline, or Queen Anne’s, collection, it is still a nice example of our canning history.

LEXINGTON PARK'S MEDALLIC TRIBUTE TO THE CENTENNIAL OF NAVAL AVIATION

By Carl Neeley R69

The United States Navy entered the world of aviation in 1911 when it was successfully demonstrated that an aircraft could be flown from on board a ship and it was later demonstrated that an aircraft could also be successfully landed aboard a ship. In 2011 the Lexington Park Business and Community Association celebrated the Naval Aviation centennial year with 6 foot banners displayed along the roads leading to and on the Patuxent River Naval Air Station. Each banner displayed the banner's sponsor identity and a logo with images of the USS Lexington, the World War II carrier for which this Maryland community is named, and a soaring fighter jet representing advancements in naval aviation. The banners were designed by local artist Jeff Hobrath, a retired Navy chief. The event evolved to include 43 sponsors of 308 banners that were hung about 40 feet off the ground by The Southern Maryland Electrical Cooperative on their power poles. In addition to the banners, the logo appeared on lapel pins, T-shirts and a "commemorative coin" (read medal) available at the Patuxent River Air Museum gift shop during the latter part of the centennial year. The medal has a diameter of 1 3/4 inches with a smooth edge and an overall bright gold finish. The obverse has a colorized black circle providing a border around the celebration's logo which is centered on the medal with the dates 1911 above and 2011 below. The logo itself is colorized with the ship, jet and lettering in black. The Maryland flag portion is in appropriate colors. The reverse of the medal has an inset circle border. Inside the border at the top is the text "100" in large letters over "Years of" over "Naval Aviation". Below the text are depictions of the first navy aircraft and a contemporary jet aircraft.

Information for this was found in articles from The Enterprise newspaper.

Members,

Not too long ago, at a MD TAMS meeting, it was suggested that we should document all the items given away by MD TAMS in its forty years of existence. This seemed like a very good idea and our Journal Editor, Jane Sears voluntarily took on the task. The results can be found elsewhere in this Journal. When you get a chance, please say thanks to Jane for a job very well done. This helps MD TAMS comply with our goal of documenting our hobby history. With this in mind how about some of you helping too. If you have ever produced such items for sale or to be given away as a commemoration, document this for publication in our Journal. It all helps the club.

Thanks. Ed Craig, President MD TAMS

MARYLAND GIVE-A-WAYS & SALE ITEMS

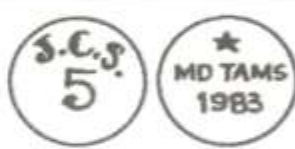

We frequently offer our members supplements for sale. Many members are not interested in buying these, so in this journal you will get a small journal and the free supplement. If you receive an email journal just print pages 11 to 19.

If you receive a paper journal separate the two or keep together. Separate items would cost too much to print since our membership is shrinking.

Pull your collection out and compare with the list. If I missed any let me know. It will be published in an upcoming journal.

This supplement lists only the items MD TAMS produced not personal give-a-ways that our club members produced. THAT SUPPLEMENT IS STILL AVAILABLE for anyone to volunteer to complete. If you are interested please contact President Ed Craig.
